

MundoChile at EXPONUT 2014

On May 8, the largest annual meeting of the Chilean nut industry took place, EXPONUT 2014, a double event offering a seminar and an exhibition of products and services. National and international experts in technical and business matters participated in the meeting, where the sector more important companies in the supply chain were also present.

EXPONUT is organized by the Asociación Gremial Nacional de Productores y Exportadores de Nueces de Chile (CHILENUT), with the support of PROCHILE and the Ministry of Agriculture, and it has become a must in the nut industry. During its five years, the event has achieved recognition and continuous growth in attendants, as well as in exhibitor companies.

MundoChile participated in this important meeting providing professional simultaneous interpretation services in English and Spanish.

