Amidst the preparations for FIFA Under-17 World Cup to be held in Chile in 2015, representatives from the Local Organization Committee (COL) and the Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) met at Hotel Hyatt last October 23, together with high sports officials in order to share the conclusions reached after visiting the different places being prepared for next year.

MundoChile had the opportunity to participate with its professional simultaneous interpreters providing English-Spanish translation services, supporting the holding of this important meeting.
