

Deepak Chopra visits Chile and gives a Conference on Leadership at Espacio Riesco

April 26, 2017

DEEPAK CHOPRA returned to Latin America to enlighten leading professionals about how to integrate the concepts of his new books, SUPER GENES and SUPER BRAIN, with the rules of the new leadership model, mentioned in his book, The Soul of Leadership.

His presentation in Chile was on April 26, 2017, and was the only conference given by this world-renowned doctor, writer and spiritual guide, who provided formulae for successful leadership without limits.

Chopra is known worldwide as a leader capable of awakening talent and motivating individuals, teams and organizations to action in order to draw out their highest potential. For this, his activities include special programs for executives from large international companies.

He is considered one of the 100 most important heroes and icons of this century according to Time Magazine.

MundoChile had the opportunity to support this important conference with its professional simultaneous interpreters in English and Spanish combinations.
